DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- I. Figures 1-4: Single rotor axis, forward to upward facing rotors, non-enmeshed rotors, rotors do not rotate independently about roll axis, rotors do not rotate independently about pitch axis.
- II. Figures 5-8: Single rotor axis, backward to downward facing rotors, non-enmeshed rotors, rotors do not rotate independently about roll axis, rotors do not rotate independently about pitch axis.
- III. Figures 9-11: Two rotor axes, backward to upward facing rotors, enmeshed rotors, rotors rotate independently about roll axis, rotors do not rotate independently about pitch axis.
- IV. Figure 12: Two rotor axes, apparently backward to upward facing rotors, rotors enmeshed, rotors do not rotate independently about roll axis, rotors rotate independently about pitch axis.
- V. Figures 16-17: Two rotor axes, one forward to upward facing rotor and one backward to upward facing rotor, enmeshed rotors, rotors do not rotate independently about roll axis, rotors rotate independently about pitch axis.

Art Unit: 4174

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Claims 47-50: III, IV, V
Claim 51: V
Claim 56: II
Claim 57: II, III, IV
Claim 64: I, III, IV, V

The following claim(s) are generic: 46, 52-55, 58-63, 65.

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: some have multiple rotor axes, the rotors either face forwards or backwards in flight mode, the rotors either face upward or downward in lift mode, some have enmeshed rotor blades, some rotor assemblies do not rotate independently about roll axis, some rotor assemblies do not rotate independently about pitch axis, some aircrafts are twin-boom design.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
